

Newsletter DBB Beams

DON BOSCO SCHOOL, BANDEL

Edition: July, 2025

Rittik Ghosh

Rittik Ghosh

Junior Section Bagless Day

With due enthusiasm and excitement, the Junior Section of Don Bosco School, Bandel also followed suit, organizing their own Bagless Day on the 1st of July, which encompassed a variety of events, ranging from creative and artistic to literary and more.

Providing an apt chance for the budding talents of the Junior Section to flourish in the best possible way, the event, as a whole, managed to garner the actively energetic participation of many students, who appreciated the renewed opportunities provided this year.

Made a memorable occasion by the effective planning of teaching and non-teaching staff, Bagless Days remain cherished and effective in their innately dynamic nature of both showcasing flowering sparks in students as also bringing out their best.

ASISC Quiz

Organized on the 1st of July, the ASISC Quiz, instituted by the Association of Schools for the Indian School Certificate and hosted by the Springfields Academy, Serampore, formed a benchmark for the undimmed enticement associated with the very texture of quizzing, in its truest essence.

Our school team's participation, characterized by a well-marked effort and intellectual stimulation, was an enriching experience for us; one which not only provided the ambience of exposure but further bears the promise of propelling us to greater achievements in this regard.

Annual Prize Distribution

On the 2nd of July, our Don Bosco School, Bandel gathered to celebrate and reward those outstanding students whose academic fortitude and excellence in the field of their curriculum was worthy of appreciation, by way of our Annual Prize Distribution ceremony.

The event, graced by the dignified presence of the Sub-Divisional Officer of the Hooghly-Chinsurah region, managed not merely to honour the ones whose achievements stand out, but also the remaining who were unable to formally attain recognition but whose concerted efforts and undimmed zeal would undoubtedly support their success in the future.

All in all, the day was a confluence of well-deserved appreciation and served as a continual reminder for everyone to strive towards the standards of excellence in the most affable manner possible.

SJC Infinitus Quiz

In this year's rendition of highlighting the fast-paced and intellectually stimulating prospect of quizzing, St. Joseph's Convent School, Chandannagar organized their very own inter-school quiz competition, 'Infinitus', on the 3rd of July, bringing together a total of 12 participating schools, of which our school was one.

It is certainly notable that out of all the competing teams, the representatives from our Don Bosco School, Bandel, showcased noteworthy mettle and excellence, bearing home due adulation and honours.

Our Junior Team, comprising Satyam Banerjee and Sthitodhee De from Class VIII and Sandipto Chattopadhyay from Class VII stood 3rd, while the Senior Team, including Auroni De and Kaustuv Biswas from Class X and Rudra Shaw from Class XII, emerged victorious, securing the 1st Position, in a truly remarkable display of both their vast knowledge and commendable ability.

Bosco Corporatus, DBL

On the 4th of July, our school went on to participate in Bosco Corporatus, the annual Business Conclave organized by Don Bosco School, Liluah. An event which certainly brought to light the many dynamic aspects associated with the world of corporate logic, business administration and more, it was further enriching by way of its edifying and enriching nature.

Furthermore, Arjun Basu and Aarav Tiwari from Class XII managed to secure the 2nd position in Bosco Incrementum, adding to them a well-deserved laurel.

ASISC Debate

Organized on the 4th of July by the Association of Schools for the Indian School Certificate and hosted by the Dunlop English Medium School, the ASISC Debate competition, foing one of the central highlights to the string of literary eventrms organized by them, was a truly edifying tussle between keen minds and tempered voices, seeking to assert their capacity to convince while staying bounded by the defensible confines of their logic.

In due course, it is truly noteworthy as we appreciate Samriddha Das of Class XI, who bagged the 1st prize, by virtue of his sheer dynamism.

Serving as the initiation to the string of the major inter-school events this year, Don Bosco School, Park Circus went on to organize their pompous extravaganza, Bosco Fest, on the 12th of July, conglomerating a wide array of schools from in and around Kolkata to participate and compete, in a truly multifaceted show of various events demanding balanced perspectives and varied talents.

Our school also went on to take part, signifying the ever-apparent enthusiasm and desire to participate. The day, marked by some victories on our part and a veritable learning experience for us all, was a truly enriching occasion.

Bosco Quirous

BAH On the 15th of July, our school organized its annual quizzing event, Bosco Quirous, standing as a true testament to the radiant legacy of intellect, knowledge and critical thinking which characterizes the very spirit of quizzing.

Brining together 11 schools to participate in the Junior and Senior levels, the quiz competition was further made memorable by the presence of the quiz-master, Mr. Ujjal Kanti Sarkar and his longstanding association with the Anwesha Quiz Club, an entity closely associated with the same ideals which drive the same textural essence of quizzing.

A truly outstanding event in which intellectually driven and sharp minds sparred against each other in a show of collaborative learning and quick thinking, it was indeed a flamboyant success, which leaves us in due anticipation of the following year's edition.

Boscotsav '25

, Held on the 19th of July, Boscotsav '25 formed the second major inter-school fest of this year, hosted by Don Bosco School, Liluah. Staying true to the illustrious legacy of such fests, the occasion proceeded in due extravagance as it highlighted and showcased an expansive array of events, most of which our school participated in.

As we renewed our ardour and commitment towards the essence of participation, our team immersed itself whole-heartedly in the same, bearing home experience and exposure.

Quizzard, TTV

On the 25th of July, Tribeni Tissues Vidyapeeth hosted a quiz competition 'Quizzard', in apt observance of the fundamental aspects which define the nature of quizzing.

Out of the multitude of participating schools, all of whom exhibited noteworthy performances, the team from our Don Bosco School, Bandel stood firmly victorious as the winners, wherein Kaustuv Biswas, Swagato Ghosh and Swarnava Gupta secured the 1st position, ascribing both to themselves and the school this honour.

Farewell of Father Vice-Principal & Birthday of Father Principal

- » Besides the upsurge of inter school events, we also bade farewell to a very important pillar of this very esteemed Institution, Fr. V. L. Francis. Father has been with the school management since long and has had a very significant role in all the proceedings of the school. His love for students and his desire to uplift the ethics of education led him to come a long way with our institution.
- » Alongside this, we also celebrated the birthday of our beloved Fr. Principal, Siby Joseph Vadakel who has ever since acted as the source of guidance for the students helping them to find their motive in life and thus develop as men of character and compassion

Xprezns 25

Bosco Xprezns, organized by our very own Don Bosco School, Bandel, was a spectacular inter-school fest that brought together a multitude of schools under one roof. It was a grand celebration of talent, creativity, and youthful energy, where students from various institutions competed in events ranging from cultural performances and literary contests to tech challenges and art displays.

More than just a series of competitions, Bosco Xprezns was a vibrant platform for self-expression and collaboration. It truly reflected the spirit of unity in diversity and reminded us all that the real glory lies not only in winning but in sharing our passions, ideas, and dreams with the world.